PART SIX: Personal Statement

Gilt Chambers is devoted to welcoming mini-pupils who are interested in gaining valuable knowledge in law. We value mini-pupils who are hard working, diligent and who demonstrate critical thinking.

For your application to be considered, please include a short submission on why you would like to undertake a mini-pupillage at Gilt Chambers, and why you believe you would be a suitable candidate. To stand out, be sure to include not just academic achievements, but also information about your extracurricular activities and or things that make you interesting and memorable.
